Religious Liberty Department

In the United States, the religious freedom challenge most often experienced by Seventh-day Adventists is the religious rights of employees in the secular workspace. Unfortunately, since 1977 the Supreme Court has held that employers have only a de minimis, or minimal, requirement to accommodate the religious practices of their employees. The de minimis standard particularly harms religious minorities like Adventist Christians who wish to honor God by refraining from work on Sabbath.

Through both court cases and legislative initiatives, the Adventist Church continues to work toward restoring an appropriate or "reasonable" standard for employer accommodation. Your Union PARL department is available to assist if you experience religious discrimination in the workplace.

We, the Southampton SDA Church are here to help in Religious Liberty issues.

SOUTHAMPTON POINCIANA
PATHFINDERS
Meet
SUNDAYS 10-12
(not the 3rd Sunday of the month)
AGES 10 and up!

The image features a vibrant background of a forest with mountains in the distance. In the foreground, there is a yellow and red Pathfinder uniform hanging on a rack, a small table with supplies, and a campsite with an orange tent and a campfire.

Have a child, niece, nephew, cousin, or neighbour aged 10 and up? The Southampton Poinciana Pathfinders would love for them to join us! We meet on Sundays (not the 3rd Sunday of the month) from 10-12 in the fellowship hall.

Have a skill you'd like to share with our Pathfinders? Kite making, baking, macrame, and more! See any of the Pathfinder staff for more information! (Director Shannon James, Master Guides, Erica Madden and Mardene Blake, and Counsellors Noreen James, Dwayne Williams, and Ryan Gibbons).

While it is essential that wise, patient efforts should be made by the teacher, the work must not be left altogether to the Sabbath-school and church worker, but it must find its foundation and support in the work of the home. Parents have a sacred responsibility and charge committed to them, and they are called upon to keep their charge, to bear their responsibility in the fear of God, watching for the souls of their children and they who must give an account. - {TSS 35.2}

Sabbath School affords to parents and children a precious opportunity for the study of God's word. TSS 10
